GRETTIR EGGERTSON
BAYSIDE, LONG ISLAND

March 4, 1945

Dear Mr. Benediktsson,

I want to thank you for the luncheon given me by the City of Reykjavik on Monday, February 5th. I cannot express to you the full appreciation felt for this gesture on your part.

I also express my thanks to Mr. Steingrímur Jonsson, Director of the Reykjavik Electricity Works, for the splendid manner in which he received me while in Reykjavik.

I believe this visit to Reykjavik will help a great deal in furthering my understanding of your problems. It will be of benefit to any future work I may have on your behalf.

Will you please express my personal regards to Mr. Guðmundur Asbjörnsson, President of the Council, Mr. Jon Axel Petursson, Councilman and Mr. Helgi Herman Eiríksson, Councilman, all of whom I met at the luncheon.

That same afternoon Mr. Helgi Sigurdsson, Director of the Heating System, conducted us on a tour of the project. I wish to thank him for the interesting manner in which he explained the functioning of the system.

Kindly give my personal regards to your father whom I met but with whom I was unable to spend as much time as I would have liked.

Yours faithfully,

Gretti Einarsson
