PRESCRIPTIONS EXTRAITES DES RÈGLEMENTS SANITAIRES FRANÇAIS.

1° Les navires venant de l'étranger ne doivent prendre pratique, à leur arrivée dans un port français, qu'après y avoir été autorisés par les agents préposés à cet effet. (Art. 1^{er} et 10 du décret du 24 décembre 1850, et 37 du règlement de 1853.)

2° Les capitaines sont tenus de présenter une patente de santé délivrée ou visée (dans sa teneur) par le consul français du port de départ, ou son représentant. (Art. 5 du décret de 1850; art. 1^{er} de la convention et 22 du règlement de 1853.)

3° Les capitaines ne doivent, en aucun cas, se dessaisir de la patente de santé du port de départ avant leur arrivée au port de destination définitive. (Art. 8 du décret de 1850; art. 35 du règlement de 1853.)

4° Si le navire fait escale, le consul français du port de relâche doit apposer, sur la patente de santé délivrée au port de départ, un visa relatant l'état sanitaire du port de relâche, et si le navire y a été admis ou non à la libre pratique; mais ni le consul ni l'autorité sanitaire locale ne

peuvent retenir cette patente ni en donner une autre. (Art. 6 du décret de 1850; art. 34 et 35 du règlement de 1853.)

5° Un navire ne doit avoir qu'une seule patente de santé. (Art. 21 du règlement de 1853.)

6° La patente de santé n'est valable que si elle a été délivrée dans les quarante-huit heures qui ont précédé le départ du navire. (Art. 28 du règlement de 1853.)

7° Tout navire dépourvu de patente de santé, ou ayant une patente irrégulière, est, à son arrivée dans un port français, passible de quarantaine, sans préjudice des poursuites qui pourraient être exercées en cas de fraude. (Art. 69 et 70 du règlement de 1853.)

8° Le capitaine est tenu, à défaut de médecin embarqué, de consigner, sur le journal du navire, les cas de maladie observés à bord, ainsi que les événements de mer qui seraient de nature à intéresser la santé publique. (Art. 8 du décret de 1850; art. 33 du règlement de 1853.)
